WANT CHANGE IN THE DRY FARM EXPERIMENT BOARD

The Elko county delegation has introduced a bill to put the control of the experiment dry farm in Pleasant valley in a board to consist of two practical farmers and a professor in the agricultural department of the state university and a member of the Nevada Agricultural experiment station.

The board is to be appointed by the governor within thirty days after the approval of the law. The two farmers are to receive $10 a month for their services and the professor his actual traveling expenses.

Better results will be achieved under this bill than under the present law. It should pass.

WHY CAN WE NOT HAVE MORE PUBLIC SCHOOL EXERCISES

Tonopah, Nev., Feb. 15.

To the Editor of the Bonanza: Lincoln's birthday anniversary has come and gone. And it might have done so, so far as the Tonopah community is concerned, absolutely unnoticed, except for the printing in your paper on Monday of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech and on Tuesday of an interesting article showing Lincoln's part in the admission of Nevada as a state.

It is too bad that the schools of Tonopah, at least, did not celebrate Lincoln's birthday. Lincoln was an ideal American; a great statesman; one whose life is worth holding up before the youth of the land as a model—as worthy of emulation. We can not have too much Lincolnism instilled in the hearts and minds of the American children.

May I ask, in this connection, why there are so few public literary and musical entertainments given by the pupils of the Tonopah public schools? In the last two years the children have taken part in just one entertainment; and that was one to which parents and others had to pay.

As a citizen and parent, I would like to see more frequent public school exercises. They are good things. They help to reveal the talents and inclinations of the children; they keep alive patriotism; they are appreciated by parents.

The father of his county will soon have a birthday anniversary. Can you not, Mr. Editor, get Prof. Schoen to give the Tonopah community something appropriate in the way of a school celebration of Washington's birthday? Yours, A PARENT.

FALSE REGISTRATION.

Jackson Wentworth, after an absence of thirty years, returned to the home of his youth. Jackson had a slight affection of the skin which made his nose very red. Hence, when he called at the parsonage the old minister remarked: "Jackson, Jackson, my man, I'm afraid you've become a hard drinker since you left."

"Don't judge by appearances, Dr. Steenthly," said Wentworth, "I hardly consume two glasses of beer a week."

"Well, then," said the minister in a soothing voice, "I guess your face, Jackson, is like my gas meter. It registers more than it consumes."—Argonaut.

FLORENCE DOUBLES TREASURY IN 1910

NEARLY $200,000 CASH ON HAND
—ANNUAL MEETING CALLED FOR MARCH 1.

The annual statement of the financial condition of the Florence-Goldfield Mining company shows that on December 31, 1910, there was a cash balance of $183,706.59 in the treasury, which is practically double the amount on hand twelve months before. The statement, issued by A. D. Parker, who is president and treasurer, makes the following exhibit:

Debit:—December 31, 1910, to cash on hand, $92,318.36; to revenue from bullion and concentrates, $86,539.41; interest and rentals received, $3,305.91; miscellaneous income, $1820; total, $683,983.66.

Credit:—Operating expenses, $320,798.84; marketing expenses, $47,053.20; general expenses, $22,129.88; taxes, $6550.06; invested in material and supplies, $1859.83; dividends paid, $105,000; total, $503,491.81; less deductions from capital accounts, $3,214.74; total, $500,277.07; balance on hand December 31, 1910, $183,706.59.

The annual meeting of the company will be held in Goldfield, on Wednesday, March 1, at 10 o'clock a. m. There is considerable speculation as to whether a dividend will be declared, but no official information has been vouchsafed. —Goldfield Tribune.

A POSTPONED TRAGEDY.

"You have appendicitis," said the doctor man to Jim.

"And I must operate at once, or else your chance is slim."

"You shall no touch a knife to me," was James' first reply—"I have no operation, an' I ain't a-goin' to die."

"Unless I cut," the doctor said. "You'll surely pass away; You will be dead, believe me, sir, by 2 o'clock today."

So Jim was scared and yielded.

The carving was a shock. But Jim was very thankful that he lived till 2 o'clock.

For doctors know their business, and it's very plain to see That this one saved Jim's life, for he didn't die till three.

—Boston Traveler.
